DIRECTORS' AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT'S REMUNERATION POLICY

1. Purpose

- 1.1 The Directors' and Senior Management's Remuneration Policy ("the Policy") has been adopted by the Board of Directors ("Board") of Eupe Corporation Berhad (the "Company" or "Eupe") on 2 May 2018, setting out the remuneration principles and guidelines for the Board and the Remuneration Committee in reviewing and/or determining the remuneration packages of Executive Directors (including the Group Managing Director) ("EDs"), Non-Executive Directors ("NEDs") and Senior Management¹.
- 1.2 The Policy is designed with the aim to support the Company's long-term objectives and create a strong performance-orientated environment to be able to attract, motivate and retain the right talent in the Board and Senior Management. The Policy shall adhere to the following key principles:
- (i) The level of remuneration package of the Directors and Senior Management should be aligned with the business strategy and long-term objectives of the Company and are competitive and comparable with the relevant market and industry practice;
 - (ii) Remuneration should commensurate with the level of responsibility of the Directors and Senior Management as well as the demands, complexities and performance of the Company;
 - (iii) To consider appropriate incentives to attract talent as well as nurture and retain high calibre Directors and Senior Management, whilst taking into account the interests of other stakeholders, including shareholders and employees; and
 - (iv) To ensure that the remuneration and incentives for Independent Directors do not conflict with their obligation to bring objectivity and independent judgment on matters discussed at board meetings.
- 1.3 The Board recognises the need to be competitive in today's volatile business environment and the Directors' and Senior Management's remuneration packages are dictated by market competitiveness and level of experience or responsibilities involved. Any review or change to the existing package will be deliberated upon by the Board as a whole upon recommendation of the Remuneration Committee, with individual Directors abstaining from discussion of his/her own remuneration.

- 2.1 Remuneration packages for EDs and Senior Management should involve a balance between fixed and performance-linked (variable) elements. The relative weightage of fixed and variable remuneration for performance varies with level of responsibility, complexity of the role and typical market practice.
- 2.2 The executive remuneration should be set at a competitive level for similar roles within comparable markets to recruit and retain high quality EDs and Senior Management. Individual pay levels should reflect the performance of the individual and corporate, skills and experience as well as responsibility undertaken.
- 2.3 The remuneration package for EDs and Senior Management shall consist of both fixed (i.e. base salary and benefits) and variable (performance based incentive) remuneration components.
- 2.4 Salaries payable to the EDs may not include a commission on or percentage of turnover and the performance-based incentive is determined in a manner which promotes sound risk management and does not induce excessive risk-taking.
- 2.5 Variable remuneration may contain any or all of the following:
 - (i) Special short-term incentive (i.e. bonus) payments to reward individuals for outstanding business contributions, and in meeting Key Performance Indicators ("KPIs") and/or set at a level sufficient to provide the EDs and the Senior Management with the motivation to achieve operational targets; and
 - (ii) Long-term incentive (i.e. performance based incentive) payments shall be designed to link the EDs' reward with KPIs that drive sustainable growth in shareholders' value over the long term, with the objective of aligning the EDs and Senior Management's incentives with shareholders' interests, and to balance the short-term with long-term focus.
